TOWNSHIP OF OLD BRIDGE WELCOMES NEW BUSINESSES

Old Bridge Township, NJ- Mayor Owen Henry, Township Council, Township Business Administrator Himanshu Shah, Steve Mamakas from the Mayor's Office of Economic Development, and Senator Samuel Thompson were delighted to welcome three new businesses to Old Bridge Township this past week.

There has been a steady growth of new businesses opening their doors to our community. A wide variety of industries have chosen to call Old Bridge home because of all it has to offer. The excitement continues to build as the Mayor's Office continues to schedule grand openings for the remainder of the year.

"Its businesses like these who make Old Bridge a great town to dine in," said Mayor Owen Henry. "House of Poke and Five Loaves Bakery & Café are great assets to our Township. I am also excited for Matawan Adult Day Care because it proves that the occupied mind with arts and craft improves the quality of life. This is really needed in our society and I am impressed."

For additional information on grand opening and businesses, please contact Mayors Office of Economic Development at (732)721-5600 ext. 7920.
