GRAND OPENING OF ALDI ON ROUTE 9 IN THE OLD BRIDGE SHOPPING PLAZA

Old Bridge Township, NJ- Acting Mayor, Himanshu Shah; Senator Samuel Thompson; Township Council members – Edina Brown, Anita Greenberg, Dave Merwin, Mary Sohor, President, and Debbie Walker; and Steve Mamakas from the Mayor’s Office of Economic Development proudly welcomed ALDI to the Township of Old Bridge Business Community.

Lines of eager consumers wrapped around ALDI this morning in anticipation of its grand opening at the Old Bridge Shopping Plaza on Route 9. This German based discount supermarket chain boasts low prices and that they can cut your monthly grocery bill in half.

“Thank you to ALDI for choosing Old Bridge,” said Acting Mayor, Himanshu Shah, and added, “that it is a true testimonial of community support just by looking at all of our residents waiting to get into the store. This will only add to the choices of places to shop for our residents here in Old Bridge.”

For additional information on grand opening and businesses, please contact Mayors Office of Economic Development at (732)721-5600 ext. 7920.
