

BETH OHR CONGREGATION HONORS TOWNSHIP OF OLD BRIDGE MAYOR OWEN HENRY

Left to right:

Old Bridge Township Business Administrator Himanshu Shah, President of Beth Ohr congregation Allen Skupp, Mayor Owen Henry, Senator Samuel E. Thompson, and Ed Mendlowitz.

Township of Old Bridge Mayor Owen Henry received recognition from Beth Ohr Congregation this past weekend in honor of his commitment and support towards the Beth Ohr congregation and Old Bridge Township community. “We are honoring Old Bridge Mayor Owen Henry who has been a driving force in this community since first taking office in 2012,” said Beth Ohr Congregation President Allen Skupp. “He has successfully worked to maintain a safe environment as seen by the fact that Old Bridge has been rated one of the safest cities in America to raise a family.” Mayor Henry believes it is very important to give back to a community which has given him so much. Over the years, Mayor Henry has offered scholarships to many graduates and contributes his talents fundraising for non-profit local causes.

Left to right:

Prior council Lucille Panos, Himanshu Shah, Prior council Allan Rosencrantz, Mayor Henry, Prior council Jim Anderson, and Prior council Joseph Mollis.

Mayor Henry was also joined by his beloved family and friends. He has always set aside special time to be with his two children Owen Jr., Valerie, and his grandson Joseph Owen, who is the apple of his eye.

Left to right:

Senator Samuel E. Thompson, Council Vice President Dr. Anita Greenberg-Belli, Council President Mary Sohor, Mayor Owen Henry, Business Administrator Himanshu Shah, and Council woman Debbie Walker.

Township of Old Bridge Municipal employees congratulating Mayor Henry.

“I consider myself blessed in so many ways, faith plays a crucial role in my life,” said Mayor Owen Henry. “ Thank you for giving me this honor today and a special thank you to Congregation Beth Ohr and its organizers.”