FRIDAY NIGHT FUN AT THE MAYOR'S HEALTH AND WELLNESS FIRST ANNUAL FAMILY PARK PARTY

Old Bridge Township, NJ – The Mayor's Health and Wellness Council kicked off their first annual Family Park Party at Mennino Park this past weekend. The evening consisted of great music from DJ Bee and local band READY WILLING & ABLE.

The event began with fun activities such as Zumba instructed by the Power House Gym, Yoga instructed by Yoga + Herb Meditation center, and much more. Children were able to create arts and craft with the T-Mobile team and play basketball with Old Bridge Basketball Association. The fun and laughter continued on with the Old Bridge Animal Shelter and Dogtopia shop as they held a dog costume contest. First, second, and third place winners were prized with special grooming and professional photoshoots from Dogtopia.

Residents were able to learn about healthy eating and living with advice from the Mayors Wellness Campaign table. A special thank you goes out to Whole Foods Market for donating bananas, oranges, and apples to this table. Tasty food trucks and restaurant vendors were also on site promoting the deliciousness of their businesses.

"I want to thank everyone who participated in this event," said Mayor Owen Henry. "We had a great turn out and appreciate all the hard work everyone put towards it. I encourage all the local businesses and residents to come and participate in next year's Family Park Party."
