THE TOWNSHIP OF OLD BRIDGE WELCOMES TWO NEW POLICE OFFICERS

Old Bridge Township, NJ –Mayor Owen Henry, Business Administrator, Himanshu Shah, Police Chief William Volkert, and Township Clerk, Stella Ward proudly swore in two new Police Officers to the Township of Old Bridge Police Department today. William Kenney and Evan Migliore joined the Department in a ceremony in front of friends and family.

Mr. William Kenney served as a Corporal in the United States Marine Corps and received several medals and ribbons for his exemplary conduct and work ethic. Most recently, Mr. Kenney has worked as a security officer and this will be his first position as a police officer.

Mr. Evan Migliore served as a Private 1st Class in the United States Marine Corps and has graduated from the Camden County College Police Academy. Mr. Migliore also received many awards and recognition for his outstanding service while serving in the Marine Corps.

“These men are great additions to our Township and I am delighted to have them on board,” said Mayor Owen Henry. “I’m sure they will work hard for the benefit of our community.”

Both gentlemen will begin and complete their field training over the next few months now that they are sworn in.
