SILVER LININGS AT OLD BRIDGE WINS FIRST PLACE IN THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF SENIOR CENTER PROGRAMS OF EXCELLENCE CONTEST

Old Bridge Township, NJ – Mayor Owen Henry is proud to announce that Silver Linings at Old Bridge (formerly Old Bridge Senior Center) won first place in the Technology category in the National Institute of Senior Center Programs of Excellence contest.

This is a nationwide contest held yearly by the National Council on Aging. The NCOA's Program of Excellence Award is designed to honor and promote outstanding efforts made by senior centers throughout the nation to offer innovative, creative, and replicable programs for older adults.

Silver Linings at Old Bridge submitted the "Selfie Project". This project served the purpose of empowering seniors through technology. During this month long project, seniors were took selfies doing variety of activities from exercise to dancing, shopping, and at special events.

"This is wonderful news for our community and we are honored to receive this award," said Mayor Owen Henry. "The winning of this award is proof of the great work that happens at Silver Linings".
