Old Bridge Township, NJ- Mayor Owen Henry and the Township Council would like to recognize and thank the Old Bridge Police Department and EMT for their commitment and dedication to the Township's residents.

Three year old Joseph Reinel went into a cardiac arrest at an event at the Cheesequake Fire House. Old Bridge resident Miriam Rodriquez (nurse), who was present at the event, was able to assist the family along with the Old Bridge Police department and EMT Matthew Ackerman and Thomas Barrett who were able to quickly arrive at the scene and help recover this young boy's life.

"I cannot begin to express the level of gratitude and thanks our family has to these amazing individuals who all came together to help us save our little boy," said Theresa Reinel mother of the boy.

"I want to thank our first responders for everything they do," said Mayor Owen Henry. "Thank you for keeping Old Bridge Township safe and secure. I want all first responders to know that their hard work does not go unnoticed. I am also glad that Joseph Reinel recovered and his family can continue to enjoy watching him grow."
