MAYOR OWEN HENRY AND THE SILVER LININGS SENIOR CENTER VISIT REFORM CHURCH HOME

Old Bridge Township, NJ- Mayor Owen Henry, Silver Linings Senior Center Manager Anahita Feltz, and ten members of Silver Linings visited the Reformed Church Home on Friday, September 14, 2018. They presented the crocheted lap blankets they made for the residents of the home. The project was done in conjunction with National Senior Center Month.

September is National Senior Center Month. The official National Council on Aging (NCOA) Theme is "Senior Centers: Building Momentum – Growing/Learning/Giving/ Connecting". Silver Linings at Old Bridge will be offering many programs and activities celebrating this year's theme.

"Our seniors took the time to create these beautiful crocheted lap blankets," said Mayor Owen Henry. "It was great to see them gift the blankets to our friends over at Reform Church Home. It was a very heartwarming experience and I look forward to visiting with our seniors again."

For more information on the exciting activities and events scheduled at Silver Linings, residents should pick up the latest copy of Silver Linings News or contact the center at (732) 721-5600 ext. 6625.
