Agents of Change: Famous New Jersey Women

Learn about famous women who have roots in the Garden State.

Photojournalist Jim DelGiudice will speak about historical figures, such as Revolutionary War heroine Temperance Wick, as well as more contemporary women such as Dr. Virginia Apgar (creator of the APGAR score for newborns), presidential candidate Carly Fiorina, Rep. Millicent Fenwick, restaurateur Alice Waters, actress Bebe Neuwirth, and the infamous Linda Tripp.

Jim DelGiudice has been documenting the NJ scene for over 25 years. He has been cited by both state and county legislatures for his lifetime contribution to the arts, and has twice won the state's Historic Preservation Award.
