GRAND OPENING OF THE KENNEDY INTERNATIONAL, INC. WAREHOUSE ON WATERWORKS ROAD

Old Bridge Township, NJ- Mayor Owen Henry; Business Administrator, Himanshu Shah; Senator Samuel Thompson; Township Council President, Mary Sohor, and Members – Edina Brown, Anita Greenberg-Belli, and Debbie Walker; and Steve Mamakas from the Mayor’s Office of Economic Development proudly welcomed Kennedy International owners: Henry Guindi, Jimmy Guindi and Mendy Reich, along with members of their administration and employees to the Township of Old Bridge Business Community.

The over 300,000 square foot newly constructed facility will warehouse home furnishings and household items before being shipped to retailers for distribution. Crowds were on hand for the opening and were expressing their excitement for the facility. Kennedy International, Inc. took the opportunity to present JMW Breast Cancer Center with a donation in the amount of $5,508 recognizing their great work with cancer patients in our area.

Mayor Henry marked the event by stating “we are always excited to gain new businesses in Old Bridge. With this new construction and facility, we have added jobs and we’ve welcomed a new business that believes in giving back to our community. This only adds to the strength and sustainability of our Township.”

For additional information on grand opening and businesses, please contact Mayors Office of Economic Development at (732)721-5600 ext. 7920.
